A STRONG MOVEMENT

A Revolt Imminent of Brazilian People.

SILVER MEN IN COUNCIL

Giants Fighting for the Good Cause in Denver.

Proceedings of To-day's Meeting and Resolutions Adopted.

The Denver Congress.

DENVER, Nov. 20.—The committee on resolutions appointed by the Mining Congress agreed upon their report, declaring that the certificates of the Government, backed dollar for dollar by gold or silver coin on deposit in the treasury of the United States, is safe and sound currency and has been approved by the people; that the First National Mining Congress is unalterably in favor of the principles of bi-metalism; that gold and silver—not one, to the exclusion of the other—are money metals of the constitution; that gold and silver should have by law equal rights, uses and monetary purposes, and to that end we demand of the Congress of the United States the enactment of laws by which silver shall be coined free in all the mints equally with gold, and to have with it full and unrestricted monetary power; that they be in the ratio of 16 to 1, and when the coinage is represented by treasury notes each dollar shall represent 412½ grains of standard silver or 25.8 grains of gold.

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court of the United States has declared "that the exception of mineral lands from grants in the Acts of Congress should be considered to apply only to such lands as were at the time of the grant known to be so valuable for their minerals as to justify the expenditure for their extraction;" and

WHEREAS, This dictum of the Supreme Court, if it should become a law, would invest the Pacific Railroad Companies that are holding grants of land from the Government with a vast number of the best mines discovered within the limits of said grants by prospectors and miners who have located thereon in good faith and developed and sold therein in the hands of agricultural lands only, as declared in the Acts of Congress making them; therefore be it

Resolved, That this Congress protests against any construction of the statutes of the United States which will result in such a system of wholesale confiscation and consequent enrichment of great combinations already enjoying the bounty of the Government, and calls upon the representatives of the people in Congress assembled to take such prompt and immediate action as may be within constitutional prerogative to destroy the threatened danger; and

Resolved, That the alien act, so far as it operates to exclude foreign capital from investment in mining lands in Territories, is false in principle and pernicious in effect, and demands its immediate repeal.

R. C. Powers of Arizona, an advocate of free coinage, occupied an hour in discussing the use of silver from the earliest days of the world's history to the present time. E. R. Brown of A-pen said America should declare for a parity of the metals. At this juncture Senator Stewart arose and announced that he did not own a share of Comstock stock, thus refuting the allegation. Judge Harley Morse of Colorado spoke for twenty minutes in favor of free coinage. Martin McGinnis of Montana denounced Campbell in a scathing manner for his cowardice in not advocating the platform upon which he was nominated. Ex-Congressman G. A. Cassidy of Nevada declared every man, woman and child in Nevada united in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Cassidy advocated the forcing of the political parties to make that question a dominant issue in the next campaign.

A Binding Twine Trust.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—The evening Post says the National Cordage Co., or "Binding Twine Trust," has purchased the entire binding twine plant of Williams, Derrig & Co., of this city for $250,000. This purchase, the Post says, gives the trust the entire control of the binding twine industry of America.

Entirely Recovered.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Secretary Foster is at the Treasury Department this morning, and appears entirely recovered from a slight cold which is reported to have caused his hurried departure from New York yesterday.

Brazilian Affairs.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—News concerning the situation in Brazil continues to be very meagre. The Provisional Junta is authority in the State. Rio Grande do Sul is taking active measures to strengthen its position and to maintain the opposition to Fonseca's dictatorship. Baron Lucerna of President Fonseca's Cabinet, has sent a dispatch to the Junta, offering on the part of the Dictator to re-organize any local government that the people of Rio Grande do Sul may prefer, on the condition that peace and tranquility be first restored. To this offer the Junta replied that the forces would disarm only when Fonseca shall have resigned and the National Congress shall have again assembled.

The Brazil Exchange Telegraph Company's further advice from Rio Janeiro this afternoon says the condition of affairs throughout Brazil are rapidly growing more critical. Everywhere discontent and disaffection with the present regime are becoming more and more pronounced. Instead of tranquility and acquiescence in Fonseca's assumption of dictatorial power, there is vigorous opposition and increasing agitation. In general terms, the political condition of the country is described as closely bordering on anarchy.

In spite of the efforts of the government to reduce Rio Grande do Sul to obedience by force of arms or to win its allegiance by concession, it is now generally admitted at Rio de Janeiro that that State will adhere to its attitude of opposition to the Dictator.

More than this, everybody whose opinion is entitled to weight believes the State will be strong enough to maintain its independence, as the reports from there show the provisional Junta is well supplied with funds and is daily increasing the effective strength of its army.

The Russian Alliance.

By Cable and Associated Press.

PARIS, Nov. 20.—Notwithstanding the semi-official denial which came from Weisbaden yesterday of the reported object of De Giers, the Russian Foreign Minister, in visiting Paris, was to conclude a treaty of alliance between his government and that of France. The Gaulois, which is the organ of the Count of Paris, published an article this morning which shows this paper believes that, alone, is the reason for the Russian Minister's visit. The Gaulois appeals to all Frenchmen to silence their discords during De Giers' stay in Paris. It says: "We all agree as to the advantage to be derived from an alliance with Russia. Some day, perhaps, such alliance will restore to us the integrity of our territory and power."

Fury in Corn.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—For a time this morning there was a panic in the corn pit on 'Change, and November option sold up to 7c from the closing price of yesterday. The advance was occasioned by an article in a morning paper declaring that there was a corner in the November delivery of corn. The shorts became frightened and rushed to cover. Their heavy buying sent the price up rapidly and caused much excitement. November opened at 55, against 53 as the final grade of yesterday. It advanced rapidly to 60 and then fell off to 58½.

Another Train Robbery.

By Associated Press.

MISSOULA (Mont.), Nov. 20.—Yesterday afternoon two masked men entered the Northern Pacific express car on the Missoula and Coeur d'Alene railroad, and at the point of their guns made the express messenger open the safe and give up all the money it contained—$2,000. The robbery occurred between Dorsey and Mullan, near the Montana and Idaho line.

No Gambling.

By Cable and Associated Press.

BERLIN, Nov. 20.—A motion supported by the conservative party was presented to the Reichstag, to-day demanding that the government introduce a bill placing the Bourne under the control of the State, and rendering persons who gamble on time bargains, especially in articles of consumption, liable to criminal prosecution.

Woolen Mill Destroyed.

Special to the Gazette.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—The Empire woolen mills, a three-story brick building used for the manufacture of shoddy cloth, and owned by J. T. Davis and T. Campbell was destroyed by fire early this morning. Loss $25,000.

RUSSIAN ALLIANCE.

Another Express Train Robbed in Montana.

REPUBLICANS IN COUNCIL

Cities Preparing to Contest for the Convention.

Excitement in Chicago Over a Corner on Corn.

Barring Gates of Missouri From the Convention.

By Associated Press.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 20.—The Alliance Convention this morning gave final coup to the anti-sub-Treasury people by the barring of Gates, of Missouri, from the meetings of the Alliance. This was done by a resolution excluding "all Alliance men who were not vouched for by the chairman of their respective State delegations." Leonard refused to vouch for Gates, and although he bore credentials from his State Alliance he was forced to retire. The anti-sub-Treasury people made a prompt response by issuing a call for a convention of the anti-sub-Treasury Alliance men at Memphis on the 16th day of December.

The call declares that as the Supreme Council declined to hear the protest against the sub-Treasury and land loan schemes, and against Government control of railroads and telegraph lines, it has been decided to issue a call for a National Convention of all anti-sub-Treasury Alliance men in the United States to hear and consider this protest, and to take such final action in the premises as seems proper and best for the general welfare.

The morning session of the Alliance was chiefly devoted to the consideration of the demands and recommendations from State Alliances. The most important action taken was the adoption of a resolution demanding a constitutional amendment disfranchising federal officers during the terms of office.

Republicans in Council.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The meeting of the Republican National League was continued [this morning]. The morning was taken up by delegates making detailed reports of the work done in their States and work proposed to be done by their respective organizations.

Idaho and Utah have submitted a written application for membership in the league.

J. B. Collins, of Miles City, Mont., was elected to represent that State as a member of the Executive Committee.

On motion of Pestern, delegate, it was decided to have one day in the year set apart for a State convention, and the Secretary was instructed to ask the different States to hold their conventions on February 17th, Lincoln's birthday. The sub-committee, to which the question of time and place of holding the next League Convention was referred will meet in Washington on Tuesday next.

Failed to Agree.

Special to the Gazette.

MODERNO, Nov. 20.—The jury in the murder case of H. T. Fuller, after being out all night were discharged, as they could not agree. They stood nine for acquittal and three for manslaughter. This is the second trial, and the District Attorney moved to dismiss the case. The matter will be taken under advisement.

Will Be Asked to Arbitrate.

By Associated Press.

By Cable and Associated Press.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 20.—The Department of the Imperial Control reports that the present state of affairs in Europe fully warrants the large extra credits asked by the Minister of the Marine.

Alaska Explorations.

By Associated Press.

DES MOINES, Nov. 20.—Lieutenant Frederick Schwatka, the Alaska explorer, has returned from his recent trip into the interior of that country and is spending a few days with his friends in Des Moines. His party left Juneau, Alaska, on June 25th. They proceeded up the Yukon river sixty miles, consuming two weeks time on account of the swiftness of the current, thence across the country eighty miles to a lake of which the natives told them. The lake is nearly 100 miles long by 15 in width and was named by the party "Ah Blaine" (big lake). They then descended the Newberry river for 160 miles, game being plentiful in this region. From Hazel Kirk they went southwest 225 miles to what is supposed to be a region in which copper abounds, but none was found.

Several weeks were spent in the exploration of Copper river, described by the Lieutenant as one of the most turbulent streams he ever had seen in his travels. After ascending the mountain peaks in the interior and taking a number of observations of peaks never before seen by white men, the descent of Copper river was made in canvas boats for nearly 100 miles.

The Lieutenant is more than pleased with his discoveries and thinks them of great geographical as well as geological value. After visiting in Iowa for a short time he will go to New York City.

The Contest Begun.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The contest between rival cities for the securing of the National Republican Convention in 1892 was actively begun this morning when the delegation from Omaha opened its headquarters here. The Omaha delegates were the first to reach the city as a body, although the van guard workers for some of the other cities were already in the field. The Minneapolis delegation reached the city this afternoon. Delegations from San Francisco and other places will arrive to-night.

From the rate the Insane Asylum is being filled up with old broken down drunks, simple minded people and the old and decrepit, that are properly charges on the county and should be kept in the county hospitals instead of the Insane Asylum, the institution will have to be enlarged very shortly. It has been quite the fashion of late for counties having an imbecile on their hands to have him charged with insanity and committed to the Asylum, thereby making a State poor house of an institution that was built for another purpose altogether. Besides that, it costs the State all the way from $50 to $350 for transportation to land them at the Asylum, when the cost should be born by the county itself. A few days ago a man was committed from White Pine county, charged with being insane, and sent in here at great expense, when he was more properly a charge on the county itself and never should have been committed to the Asylum at all, for he was as sane as he ever was in his life when he was committed. He had kept himself soaked so long in bug juice that he was entirely helpless and had to be assisted up stairs when he arrived here. The fellow only lived a week after he was committed. Another case in point is that of Billy Barnett, committed from this county and a charge on the State when he should be cared for at the expense of his parents. He is simply an idiot and always was one and is in no sense insane. About thirty per cent. of the patients confined in the Asylum are victims of their own folly in years gone by, who have turned up in the several counties in this State without means, broken down in health, and in order to get them off the county's hands are committed to the Asylum as "insane." If the State needs a poor house for such patients as are incapacitated from earning a living let it provide one and not fill the Asylum up with old broken down drunks.

The experiment following last year's Indian outbreak in Dakota of putting an army officer in charge of the Cheyenne Agency has resulted in uncovering systematic frauds on the part of officials of the Interior Department. It is no matter for wonder that strong opposition, has been manifested to turning over the care of the Indians to the army. These Indian agents and their subordinates have a great deal of "pull," and were not disposed to be punished for their past or deprived of their future pickings. It was held at the time by military officers that the Indians had reason to be discontented with the management of their affairs.

The Eastern people are experiencing an early cold wave, and infer, from it that the winter will be a severe one. It would not be surprising if this conjecture proved correct. If it does there will be less suffering than during many previous winters, when employment was not as easily obtained as it is now in the great manufacturing centers.

The calamity wallers of this country, if they could be induced to cease their complaints for a short time, would hear stories of real troubles from other countries which would make them ashamed of themselves. The truth of the matter is that the United States is the most prosperous nation on the globe and is envied by every other country.

Mr. Mills is elected Speaker the protectionists may rely upon it that the issue of the next campaign will be that of the tariff, in which event Calamity Mills will be heard walling through the land that the country is going to ruin, although it never enjoyed greater prosperity.

DOWN IN TEXAS.

A Bullet Wound Considered a Small Matter.
"Partner," said the big Texan, in a low tone, "would you mind doing me a small favor?" The "partner" turned from the car window, through which he had been studying the landscape, and said: "Certainly not." Thereupon the big Texan turned half way in the car seat and drew from his hip pocket a quart bottle half full of corn-colored juice. The newspaper man made haste to say he didn't drink. "Oh, it isn't to drink," replied the big Texan, with a grim smile. "Hold it a minute and I'll show you what I want you to do." Slowly and with an occasional gritting of the teeth the Texan rolled up his pantaloons to the knee and brought to view a fresh bullet hole in his leg. "Now," said he, "just let the whisky drip on her, will you?" The bottle was tilted, and while the Texan sat with a set face the scorching fluid trickled into and around the wound. The car was full. Several male passengers sniffed the air and looked at each other inquiringly. But nobody save the Texan and the bottle holder knew what the smell meant or whence it proceeded. In a few moments the Texan said he "thought that would do," drew a long breath, rolled down his pantaloons and put the bottle back in his pocket with a "much obliged to you, partner." At the next station he got out, carrying a lady traveler's baggage and stepping along as blithely as you please.

DETAINED THE MAIL.

A Postman's Quiver Experience with a Mail-Box.
A New Haven letter-carrier was making his last round for the day not long ago, according to the Register, when he unexpectedly found himself a prisoner. It was about half-past ten in the evening and he was hastening from box to box, taking up their contents. His key was attached to a small but strong chain which was fastened about his waist in such a way that it could be taken off only by having the key end of the chain. It is customary for the carriers to put the key in a breast pocket after opening a box, the box being fastened again with a spring lock. In the present case the key entered the man's pocket but slid down inside the box unobserved. He slammed up the loosely-closing door, put on the padlock, snapped it and darted onward. He took two steps and was brought up with a suddenness that jarred both the man and the post. The key was inside the box and the carrier was a prisoner. To remove the chain from his body was out of the question. He stood still, therefore, until a young man happened along. To him he explained his predicament, and in half an hour or so a duplicate key was brought from the post office and he was released.

A BACHELOR'S VIEWS.

The Only Way to Find Out the True Nature of a Woman.
The reason that a great many men do not marry is the fact that it is absolutely impossible to find out, save by experiment, what kind of a wife a girl will make. You call on a young lady at her home, for instance; you take her to parties, to the theater, to church, and you may associate with her and her family for a year at a time without really knowing anything about her. She is always on dress parade when you are around, and so are her family. Everybody wears a smile and seems to think a great deal of everybody else, and particularly of her, and for all you know she may lie in bed till twelve o'clock every day reading French novels, and then come down in a wrapper and curl papers. The only way for a man contemplating matrimony to get near the truth is to go and board with his prospective mother-in-law for a year. He may not learn anything even then about the character of the young lady with whom he is thinking of entering into partnership, but he will stand a much better chance of finding out than if he appeared in the house solely as a visitor.

The Screen of "Private" on Letters.
"A well-wisher" has been good enough to write all the way from India to inform me that the circular in which Sir George Greaves rebuked officers for traveling second-class was a "confidential" document, says Labouchere in London Truth. I really do not see that this is a very material fact. There are cases, of course, in which, by the unwritten laws of society, a "private" communication is sacred. If a man writes to me in my editorial capacity, a "confidential" communication, I consider that I am bound to go to the stake rather than to disclose his identity. But if a man writes a letter which may do harm, or is intended to do harm, or is otherwise objectionable, I do not see what right he has to screen himself or the document by marking it "private."

An Aluminum Steamboat.
Some novel and interesting experiments have recently been made on the lake of Zurich with a steamboat built entirely of aluminum, which claims to be the first of its kind. The boat weighs only about half a ton, viz., about half the weight of an ordinary boat of the same size. The metal is obtained by an electrical process, the dynamos being driven, not by steam engines, but by turbines, which utilize the water power of the celebrated falls of the Rhine, so that the boat claims to be the product of Swiss labor and power. It carries eight persons, and with a petrol engine of only two-horse power easily makes six miles an hour. Aluminum not being subject to rust, the permanent color of the boat is a beautiful dull white, while the chimney, being of polished aluminum, shines like silver. The trial trips of the boat were emphatically successful.

Taxing Bachelors.
Georgia is going to tax bachelors. A bill for that purpose has been brought into the legislature and the house committee on hygiene and sanitation has reported it favorably. Under its terms it will cost a Georgian twenty-five dollars to begin the bachelor business at thirty years of age, and on a rising scale of twenty-five dollars for five years a man at sixty and over will be at the expense of two hundred dollars per annum for the privilege of going without a wife.

Pimples.

The old idea was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus the old Sarsaparilla contained potash, a drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthy digestion purify it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion. I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

JOTTINGS.

If you don't want to be robbed of your good name don't have it inscribed upon your umbrella. But go to Richard Herz and order something for your test.

There is a good deal of opinion in the general public in the place to go to buy your wood for everybody trades with J. F. Aiken.

When Jay Gould is a bull he tries to give the public the wrong steer. He never could give the public the wrong steer in a Reno hotel for he always stops at the Riverside and recommends his friends to do the same.

McCorkle—I wonder why it is so easy to borrow trouble? McCorkle—Because everybody has more than he wants. But nobody has trouble who takes his lunch at Jake Becker's.

At the Harvest of Death

Much grain is prematurely reaped by the ravages of disease that might have been a golden harvest if "miserable" bodily troubles had been attended to in time. Nothing is truer than this—bodily ailments not only grow apace, but beget one another. Thus biliousness, constipation, dyspepsia follow close on the heels of one another, flourish together, and one perpetuates the other, and begetting a number of progeny of later ailments of more or less severity, their cause is more or less deranged as neglected. Incontinent rheumatism, malaria and "slight" indigestion, and other ailments that are the cause when no or but slight attention is paid to their early warnings. Of joining these ailments with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and for still the luxurious reaper, who exacts the forfeiture of life as the penalty for disregarding the means of preserving it.

Eve's Daughters.

Marion Harland, on pages 101 and 145 of her popular work, "Eve's Daughters," or, Common Sense for Maid, Wife and Mother," says:

"For the aching back—should it be slow in recovering from normal strength—Allcock's Porous Plaster is an excellent corrector, combining the sensation of the spasm of a strong warm hand with certain tonic qualities developed in the wearing. It should be kept over the seat of uneasiness for several days—in obstinate cases, for perhaps a fortnight."

"For pain in the back wear an Allcock's Porous Plaster constantly, removing as it wears off. This is an invaluable support when the weight on the small of the back becomes heavy and the aching incessant."

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price, 50 cents and $1 per bottle at Finsinger's drug store.

GOOD-BYE, TRUCKEE!

The Croakers at Work for Nineteen Years Without Success.

The Truckee Republican contains the following about that town and its prospects. It is equally as applicable to Reno as Truckee:

During a residence of exactly nineteen years and four months we have heard every year, every month, and almost every day, that "Truckee is going down;" "There is nothing to make a town or keep it up;" "In a year or two it will be good-bye Truckee;" "If we were sure the town is going to live, we would invest in the enterprise;" "The timber is all cut off and Truckee is doomed;" "The railroad company are going to move their shops, the round-house and the division to Reno, and Truckee will be deserted." Mind you, patient reader, these expressions have been heard almost daily for a period of nineteen and a third years. The story has always been the same, and always will be until the All-Wise Creator changes its plans in regard to the manufacture of so many croakers to every square mile of town property.

Let us see. Six years ago the cry was very bitter against the possibility of the town living. Whole colonies of people had moved away. There was a Fresno colony, a Spokane colony, and men with families had moved to all parts of the coast. One hundred and fifty white men were employed in and around Truckee and no more. It did look a little black for a while. But Truckee not only lived, but prospered. Many other bad years might be cited, but the one example will serve for all. We make the bold assertion, and no one can truthfully contradict it, that Truckee has improved, grown, and new houses built, new enterprises started, increased her property values, had better prospects for the future, during every single one of the aforesaid nineteen years. Take this year for an illustration. Improvements have been carried on in every part of town. Substantial buildings, much better than the old ones, replaced those that were burned last fall. An almost fire-proof range stands to-day on the burned district. Richardson Bros. have introduced their steam wagon and made it a success. Shafter has built two lines of railroad. An addition to the town has been laid out and fifteen or twenty lots have been sold therein, simply because there is no more room in the main town. New dwellings, and very creditable ones too, have been erected. An opposition ice company have announced their intention of joining issues with the Union Ice Company and offer to buy and improve every available ice site on the river. That means Truckee, for there are no longer any ice ponds east of town that are not occupied. Every mine in the Meadow Lake mining district has been bonded to Denver parties who have fully tested the ore and the processes they propose using. If Meadow Lake booms in the spring, Truckee will boom, for the traffic and travel must come from this point. Carlisle can be reached from Cisco, and a steep mountain shuts Meadow Lake off from Carlisle. Newlands announces that he has spent $70,000 at Donner Lake, and no one who knows Mr. Newlands expects that he will not take steps to get his money out with interest. There is only one way to do this, for in addition to the $70,000, he and his friends have bought up vast tracts of desert land north of Reno. These tracts, and the water stored in Donner Lake must be brought together. That means a ditch running through of Truckee, and extending north by Sardinia Valley. Such a ditch will be a large asset to thousands of men will be employed to build it. It further means a system of reservoirs and canals extending from Tahoe to Webber Lake. It means employment for many men, constantly.

Lewis Mining News.

The Central Nevada says: Three hundred tons of milling ore are on the dump of Eagle mine. Lewis. Every part of Tunnel No. 1, where rock can be stored, is filled with sacks of ore awaiting the opening of the Highland Chief mill in the spring. Teams will commence the hauling of the rock on the dump to the mill in about two weeks, so that when the rock-breakers begin to grind and the stamps to drop, the bins will contain a plethora supply of ore.

It Should be in Every House.
J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies had several physicians had done her no good. Robert Butler, of Cockspur, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for Lung Trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. For sale by W. Finsinger's Drug Store. Large bottles 50c and $1.00.

A Verdi Blaze.

At an early hour this morning a fire broke out in the rear of Mrs. Gibson's hotel at Verdi (the old Bowman House) and wiped up a barn, hog pen, and several other sheds and out-buildings; loss, about $300. The hotel itself was on fire two or three times and it was only saved by the hardest kind of work. The yard engine with several tanks of water went from here, but the blaze was under control and nearly out before it got there.

There is None Better.
Dr. R. L. St. John of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes especial pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. He has used it in his practice for several years, and says there is none better. It is especially valuable for colds and is a preventive and cure for croup. This most excellent medicine is for sale by J. B. McCullough, Druggist.

Another Prophet Gone Wrong.
Where is Prof. Jellison's storm? It is the question that is agitating the public mind now. The GAZETTE put it off for five days and predicted that it would be here on the 25th. We shall see what we shall see.

Don't miss it. It will be the grandest sight witnessed in many years. Masquers tickets for lady and gentlemen $1.50. Spectators 50 cents. Don't fail to go.

SARAH WINNEMUCCA.

Colonel Frank Parker Tells How She Once Saved His Life.

Princess Sarah Winnemucca, who died recently in Montana, was a remarkable woman in many respects, and a prominent feature in the Indian relations of the Pacific Coast for the past quarter of a century. She had but one idea, and that was the civilization of her people. She was the daughter of old Chief Winnemucca, of the great Piute tribe, which included the Bannocks, Sheep-eaters, Weisers, Malheurs and the Snake River Indians, who committed so many depredations in early days in Oregon and Idaho. Winnemucca and her whole family were ever true to the whites, and so far as their jurisdiction extended forced their tribes to peace. Colonel Frank J. Parker, editor of the Walla Walla Statesman, tells how she saved his life and that of his companions in the Malheur country in the spring of 1877, when on her way to the Malheur reservation in the vain endeavor to prevent the reservation Indians there from going on the war-path with Buffalo Horn. One night one of the horses of her team got away, and to help her out she loaned a young fellow, who was along with her, one of her horses to hunt the lost one. Charles Robinson of this city and a boy were along with us at the time, and for the help we rendered her we always gave credit for saving our little country from being killed. The Indians had already done their war paint and we were in their midst. The very day we arrived on the reservation everything was looking dark. Sarah was all the time in consultation with Chief Egan, and sent for us. Going to her camp, she introduced Egan, and intimated that we had better get, and stand not upon the order of getting. As we only had one gun among our crowd, the advice was taken.

After this Sarah joined Howard's outfit, and followed him throughout the Bannock campaign, and was a possible interpreter in case of desire to surrender on the part of the hostiles. When the war ended she was in great demand by the Interior Department authorities, and did good work in having the remnants of her tribe removed to various other reservations where they could do no mischief. She was the only Indian on this coast who ever took any prominent part in settling the Indian question, and as such her memory should be respected.

Col. Parker could not have known old Winnemucca's story for a more treacherous wretch never lived.

HE IS NOT SO GREAT.

A Poor Editor Tells What Other Men Can Do, and What He Can't.

The poet Tennyson can take a worthless sheet of paper, and by writing a poem on it, make it worth sixty-five hundred dollars—that's a genius.

Vanderbilt can write a few words on a sheet of paper and make it worth $5,000,000—that's a capital.

The United States can take an ounce and a quarter of gold and stamp upon it an "Eagle bird" and make it worth $20—that's a power.

The mechanic can take material worth $5 and make it into a watch worth $100—that's a skill.

The merchant can take an article worth 75 cents and sell it for a dollar—that's a business says the book-keeper.

A lady can purchase a very comfortable bonnet for $3.75, but she prefers one that costs $27—that's a foolishness.

The ditch-digger works ten hours a day and shovels three or four tons of earth for $2—that's a labor.

The editor of the "Penny Gazette" could write a check for $80,000,000, but it would not be worth a nickel—that's a rough.

The Women's Guild.

The Women's Guild of Trinity Church is well satisfied with the result of the entertainment given for the benefit of the organ fund last night. The Pavilion was well filled by young people and the proceeds were very satisfactory. From the cake with a $5 piece in it Henry Rule got the lucky five and generously donated it to the organ fund.
